

SunCoke Energy™

Political Contributions Statement

COMPANY CONTRIBUTIONS

SunCoke Energy, Inc. (“SunCoke”), is committed to compliance with all federal, state and local laws that govern elections and campaign contributions in the U.S. and abroad. SunCoke’s financial and other resources are not to be used for political activities. No SunCoke agent or representative is authorized to make a political contribution on behalf of SunCoke or in SunCoke’s name or to use his/her position with SunCoke to solicit political contributions from suppliers, contractors, vendors or consultants. As such no money is contributed to a political campaign or party.

At certain times, SunCoke may decide to express an opinion on, and/or use its resources for, political issues that may have an economic effect on our business. The decision to provide political opinions or contributions will be made by the SunCoke Executive Committee and the SunCoke Legal Department. Opinions or contributions may only be made by SunCoke officers who are authorized to do so.

INDIVIDUAL CONTRIBUTIONS

SunCoke’s political contributions statement is not intended to discourage or prevent individual employee’s from engaging in political activities or making individual contributions. Political activities and contributions of individual employees must be contacted on an employee’s own time and at their own expense. At no time are employees authorized to act or speak on behalf of SunCoke and employees are expected to take care in avoiding the appearance of such.